HAAS CNC EDUCATION

Industry-Standard Training and CNC Machines

BRIDGING THE GAP

Between the Classroom and the Job Floor.

We believe that learning on real CNC machines creates more practical, job-ready machinists. As the #1 CNC brand in North America, Haas provides an ecosystem where students gain experience on the exact same technology they will use in the industry. With Haas EDU models, the machine in the classroom is the same “real-world” machine they will run on Day 1 of their careers.

SIMULATORS

Learn without the Risk.

The industry standard

Our "One-Control Philosophy" means the interface on a $10k Desktop Mill is identical to a $250k 5-axis machining center.

Practice Without Risk:

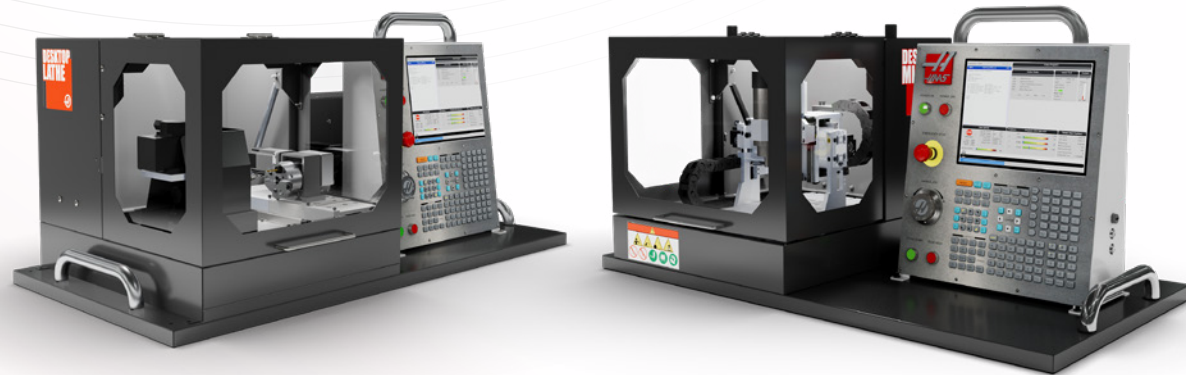

Set tool offsets and perform dry-runs in a zero-risk environment.

Safety First:

Eliminate the fear of "crashing" a machine, students can build muscle memory before touching a spindle.

DESKTOP SERIES

Real CNC Control, Small Footprint

Haas Technical Education Community

A CAREER PARTNERSHIP:

Learning on Haas Machines
Means Reliability and Networking

The HTEC Network

When you buy a Haas, you join a global community of more than 4500 schools and training centers.

The Gene Haas Foundation

Since 1999, the Gene Haas Foundation has provided over $150 million in grants and scholarships to schools and students.

Supporting local organizations and educating individuals for CNC machining.

Local HFO Support:

Our Commitment to Education Every school is backed by a local Haas Factory Outlet (HFO). We understand that an hour of downtime is an hour of lost instruction.

Haas Automation is the largest machine tool builder in the United States. Haas products are sold, serviced, and supported through a network of more than 170 locally owned and operated Haas Factory Outlets, in more than 60 countries. Haas Factory Outlets (HFOs) provide the best sales, service, and support in the machine tool industry.
